

Activities for home Learning

This Reading Mama

<https://cdn.thisreadingmama.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/08/VSSC-SF-TRM.pdf> useful resource for you to make a visual timetable. The labels are child friendly, with visual clues for your children so they can follow the routine independently. You can work with your children and make an interesting routine for the day which will encourage children to stick to it.

Oxford Owl

<https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/kids-activities/learning-activities-for-toddlers/>

There are lots of games and activities you can do with your child to have fun together and get them developing important skills, such as speaking and listening and developing eye-hand co-ordination such as singing together, painting and drawing, hands-on games, reading books together and talking about numbers around you. Free download on a variety of activity sheets.

CBeebies

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies>

Games, puzzles and quizzes for nursery, Reception age children. A variety of activities and videos to help children learn about different topics. Quizzes, games, puzzles, Storytime and singalong.

Bright Horizons

<https://www.brighthorizons.com/life-at-home>

Bringing the world home is a family guide and support for parents, learning at home activities, growing readers book recommendations educational apps and websites. Enjoy daily activities to do with your children such as cooking, craft and family dancing. Ideas on how to use household items and recycling materials and still have fun with your children.

<https://www.brighthorizons.co.uk/family-resources/play-and-learning/play-and-learning-at-home>

Play and Learning at Home cards have been carefully created for parents to help you continue your child's learning at home. Each card has a different activity for children and helpful notes for parents to encourage their development. From growing artists, green gardeners, to creative cooks, active athletes, creative readers and growing healthy hearts and minds.

<https://www.brighthorizons.co.uk/coronavirus/coronavirus-information>

To support for you and your family, we have created a number of helpful resources and guides – from talking to children about coronavirus to activities for you and your family to do at home.

Boogie mites

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VVvdCiJYbqA&t=1s>

Fun song on washing your hands. Using lots of actions and movement and teaches children how to wash their hands properly.

Twinkl

www.twinkl.co.uk

Free service for educators, parent and children to use whilst schools are closed. Each day you'll find a new set of daily activities to get involved with. This includes book readings, live lessons, positive news updates and more. A variety of activities are available on a daily basis. There is a scheduled routine each day and activities range from Joe Wicks daily exercise, Phonics/ fine motor skills, number blocks, share a story and craft session. You even have a built in break and lunchtime.

David Walliams

<https://www.worldofdavidwalliams.com/activities>

Fun activity worksheets for all ages Filled with all the wacky and wonderful characters in David Walliams' books, you can download any of these free activity sheets for hours of fun and learning at home!

Cosmic Kids

www.youtube.com/user/cosmicKidsyoga

Yoga videos for Yoga, relaxation and mindfulness designed for children 3+. The activities use cool characters, Frozen Moana, Harry Potter, Troll are among the few. It is an opportunity for children to learn about new situations and experiences through Yoga. Children get the enjoyment whilst being active. It's health screen time!

Funology

<https://www.funology.com/>

A website with ideas for art and crafts, cooking/recipes, games as well as fun science experiments that can be carried out at home. Check their art/craft activities, children are encouraged to use resources from within their environment, nature craft, recycling materials and child friendly recipes.