Are you an enthusiastic, motivated, and committed individual with high standards and a strong work ethic?

If so, then you may be the person we are looking for.

We are looking for someone who has a good understanding of how to develop projects which meet the school's staff wellbeing priorities.

You will therefore be expected to work with a range of staff to unpick our current activities, as well as develop new wellbeing initiatives which will be self-sustaining moving forward.

You will be responsible for the strategic development of the school's staff wellbeing provision.

You will oversee the delivery of our current working models and develop programmes/models to enhance provision moving forward.

You will be a key decision maker and strategic thinker, working with the leadership team to help shape the future direction of staff wellbeing.

The successful applicant will possess excellent communication, organisational and IT skills, be proactive and be able to work independently to deadlines. Experience in a school environment or in depth knowledge of the education system is essential.

If you have the enthusiasm and commitment to contribute to the ongoing development of this successful, friendly and supportive school, we would like to hear from you.

Parkwood primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All post holders are subject to a satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.

What we offer:

- Committed, hardworking staff
- Happy pupils
- Community spirit and a supportive work environment
- A team committed to improving wellbeing for all

If you would like to apply, please complete the application form and return to admin@parkwood.hackney.sch.uk by noon Friday 16th September 2022.

If you wish to visit the school viewings are available on 5th and 12th September 2022, please contact the school on the email above to arrange an appointment.
