- Is passionate about the outcomes for our children and their families
- Has excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Can lead, model and develop high quality teaching and learning
- Can motivate, enthuse and inspire staff and children
- Has a commitment to the inclusive ethos and values at Comet

At Comet we will offer you:

- A committed, experienced and established staff team
- Energetic and inquisitive children who are eager to learn
- CPD to develop your role as a SENDCo
- The opportunity to work in an inclusive and diverse community
- A strong senior leadership team where you will be able help further shape our vision
- Support to further develop your skills and knowledge in leading and developing our open ended curriculum

The post is to start in April 2021 or sooner if available. Visits to the school are encouraged and can be arranged by calling the school office.

Closing date for applications: Friday 4th December 2020 at 12noon.

Interview date: Friday 11th December 2020
