

Primary Advantage Federation

Class Teacher

Primary Advantage is a federation of eight schools in Hackney. Our schools are exciting places with high expectations which promote innovation and excellence. We offer:

- high quality professional development to support a teacher's continued growth;
- the unique opportunity to be part of a community of teachers who regularly share best practice and learn from each other;
- a wide range of leadership development opportunities across the Federation.

We are looking for inspiring, energetic teachers to work in all our schools from September 2020. There are a number of recruitment and retention initiatives available for high quality teachers.

We wish to appoint class teachers who:

- Are enthusiastic, hardworking and committed to supporting all pupils
- Have excellent teaching, organisational and interpersonal skills
- Have the potential to develop others effectively and work as part of a team
- Have highly reflective practice
- Have creative ideas with an ability to translate them into inclusive practice
- Are committed to improving student outcomes

If you are ambitious and eager to teach we would like to meet you.

Visits are warmly welcomed and encouraged. To view or download our application pack, please visit www.primaryadvantage.co.uk/recruitment. For queries in regards to the post or to return applications, please contact our Admin & Data Officer, Venessa Williams at recruitment@primaryadvantage.hackney.sch.uk.
