Betty Layward Primary School in Stoke Newington provides high quality care and education for a diverse cohort of 3 to 4 year olds.

“The school is a caring environment where pupils’ well-being is a priority and everyone is valued. as a result, pupils are courteous and polite and behave very well. They welcome visitors warmly and are keen to talk about their school. Pupils are proud of their school. They are caring and quick to support each other if there is a difficulty. As one pupil put it, ‘I love this school because we are all one big happy family’. The overwhelming majority of parents agree, with one parent saying, The school is an incredible positive, warm and fun educational environment.”
