We are looking for an inspiring and innovative Inclusion Teacher to join our small outstanding nursery school. The job will focus on the role of a SENCo combined with monitoring the learning of children with English as an Additional Language and those eligible for Early years Pupil premium. This post has the flexibility of working one day at home. We look forward to hearing from you!

Ofsted November 2017: Adults at the nursery are great role models for the children; they demonstrate clearly what they expect children to achieve. As a result, a high proportion of children make accelerated progress from their starting points.
