Welcome Letter from the Executive Headteacher

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in our advert for the post of Class Teacher working within The New Wave Federation. The schools within the Federation are Grazebrook Primary School based in Stoke Newington, Shacklewell Primary School based in Dalston and Woodberry Down Community Primary School based in Manor House. The New Wave Federation was created in March 2016. Our schools federated after forming long term partnerships sharing expertise of best practice in all areas of education. We are very excited about this continued opportunity to raise standards and share our learning experiences. We are delighted that you would like to be part of this and welcome you to join us as we embark on this journey.

This pack has been put together to help you with the application process. If you would like to visit the schools for a tour and learn more about the federation we are happy for you to contact us. If you have any questions that you would like to ask please do contact Mrs Lisa Langley, PA to the Executive Headteacher on 020 8802 4051.

The role requires someone who is passionate about children's learning and who has a rich knowledge and understanding of how learners learn. The right person will be someone who is up to date with 21st century education, who can use new technologies and who is creative and resourceful. Our parents and carers want the very best education for their children and so do we.

The successful applicant will demonstrate that they are excellent practitioners with a creative approach, are committed to the delivery of high quality teaching and learning, have high expectations, possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills, are good team members.

We can offer you schools which are popular and well resourced, have a friendly and dedicated staff with good opportunities for development.

Our schools are vibrant, diverse and inclusive. There are challenges but also great rewards in the work here. If you are an effective communicator, have vision, energy and believe that every child can and will succeed, we would like to meet you.

Kind regards,

Mrs Nicole Reid
Executive Headteacher

Job Description

Post Title:	Class Teacher
Responsible to:	Executive Headteacher and Headteacher, Governing Body, and members of Senior Management Team.
Direct Reports:	Ancillary staff when based in their classroom.
Salary:	Main Scale Teacher.
Key Internal Contacts:	Other teachers within the school, Executive Headteacher and Headteacher.
Key External Contacts:	Local community, parents/carers and agencies relevant to duties

Job Summary

- The current School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document describes duties which are required to be undertaken by teachers in the course of their employment. In addition, certain particular duties are reasonably required to be exercised, and completed in a satisfactory manner. It is the contractual duty of the Classroom Teacher to ensure that his/her professional duties are discharged effectively.
- This job description sets out the duties to be undertaken and performed to the satisfaction of the Executive Headteacher and Headteacher and the Governing Body by the Classroom Teacher. The duties set out on page six relate to the overall class teaching requirements and related expectations of a Classroom Teacher.

Main Duties

- Within the class: to ensure the full implementation of the National Curriculum Orders for all subjects, or the Foundation Stage content as defined in current DFE documentation (as applicable to the year group) and in accordance with school policies.
- To create a positive, stimulating and innovative environment for learning. Maintain a well organised classroom with appropriate displays, resource areas and materials.
- To plan and implement a curriculum to meet the needs of all pupils in the class and develop personal and social aspects of learning.
- To develop effective ways of overcoming barriers to learning and sustain effective teaching through the assessment for learning.
- To keep under review the methods of planning and delivery of the curriculum, recording pupils' progress and make any required assessments.
- To monitor and report the quality of pupil attainment in all subjects to the Executive Headteacher, Headteacher and Governing Body.
- To assist in the selection of resources for the curriculum.
- To monitor and assess own performance and take a proactive approach to professional development.
- To effectively manage pupil behaviour, encouraging a high standard of behaviour and mutual respect between pupils and all members of the school community.
- To promote and facilitate parental involvement in teaching and learning through a shared school/home approach.
- To work with support staff and other teachers in the classroom to effectively plan for a range of needs and be supportive of and sensitive to the needs of other colleagues.
- To encourage interaction and teamwork within the school, share ideas and new initiatives and identify new ways of teaching the curriculum. When required, take a leading role in an area of school development.
- To assist other staff, including NQTs and students on teaching practice, and to assist with INSET for staff and governors when required to do so.
- To work with the Hackney Learning Trust on local and national initiatives for all subjects of the National Curriculum.
- In addition, to undertake such duties of a similar nature as may be reasonably directed by the Executive Headteacher and Headteacher from time to time.

General Duties

- The Classroom Teacher within a Primary School teaches classes of approximately 30 children aged 3 to 11 years.
- To be successful in this role you must readily adapt to a changing curriculum, modifying lesson preparation and delivery accordingly.
- The Classroom Teacher will operate strictly in accordance with school policies.

The duties and responsibilities of this post may vary from time to time according to the changing needs of the school. This job description may be reviewed at the discretion of the Executive Headteacher and Headteacher in the light of those changing requirements and in consultation with the Classroom Teacher and the Governing Body.
