

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for expressing an interest in the post of History Teacher at Clapton Girls' Academy.

We are an outstanding 11-19 academy. We prioritise high quality learning and teaching to ensure successful student achievement. Our students are keen to learn and a pleasure to teach. We provide a warm and welcoming learning environment with a strong team of committed teachers and support staff. Staff can develop their teaching practice through a number of opportunities, including ongoing CPD, access to a range of courses and our status as a World Class School and leading member of the Hackney Teaching Schools Alliance (HTSA).

Student outcomes at Clapton Girls' Academy are outstanding. 78% of our students achieved grade 9-4 in both English and maths in 2018. Progress is outstanding with students achieving on average $\frac{1}{2}$ a grade higher than expected in all GCSE subjects (Progress 8 = 0.56). 82% of students who were entered for the English Baccalaureate achieved 9-4/A*-C in all areas. This has been achieved with a cohort where approximately half of student are from disadvantaged backgrounds and results achieved by these students are significantly better than those of similar students nationally. Our popular sixth form continues to grow and our Key Stage 5 results are among the best in Hackney and are in the top 10% of sixth forms nationally.

If appointed you will get the opportunity to work within an experienced, collaborative history department alongside staff committed to ensuring students reach their full potential. Last academic year 86% of our GCSE history students achieved 9-4 grades. At KS5, 50% of students achieved A*-B for interested and suitably qualified candidates, the timetable for this post could also include some teaching of A-Level Government and Politics.

We are looking for staff who are committed to developing confident and capable learners. We expect hard work, skill and dedication, and in return will provide an excellent working environment, competitive rates of pay and a comprehensive staff benefits package.
