The Teaching Assistant Role

We are looking to appoint an exceptional Teaching Assistant who is passionate about children's learning and has a rich knowledge and understanding of how learners learn. The person appointed will work in collaboration with the class teacher to accelerate learning for all pupils in the class as well as planning and delivering interventions for individuals and groups of children.

The School

Harrington Hill Primary is a warm and welcoming school in the wonderfully diverse and vibrant borough of Hackney. There are currently approximately 250 pupils on roll and the school has recently been refurbished with modern facilities and excellent resources. If successful, you will be joining a highly motivated, enthusiastic staff team and a welcoming school community.

The Candidate

The ideal candidate will have a rich knowledge of how pupils learn and will be committed to improving pupil progress and engaging children in their learning. Knowledge and experience with using the Read, Write, Inc phonics programme for pupils in Key Stage 1 is desirable.

As an essential you will have:

- Confidence, enthusiasm and a passion for learning
- Excellent English skills along with good reading, writing and numeracy skills
- The ability to build good working relationships with children, teachers, parents and carers
- Experience of working with children with Special Education Needs and Disabilities (SEND)
- The ability to promote positive behaviour in a nurturing environment
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure Application to the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions, it is not currently possible to arrange a visit to the school, but we are happy to answer any questions you may have by contacting us at: admin@harringtonhill.hackney.sch.uk or Tel: 020 8806 7275
