

THE PAVILION SCHOOL PART OF THE GARDEN SCHOOL

The Pavilion
School
Ickburgh Road,
London E5 8AD

July 2021

Dear Candidate

REF: SITE SUPERVISOR

The Garden school, based in Stoke Newington in Hackney, is outstanding provision for pupils from 4 to 16 years old with autism and learning difficulties. It is expanding its offer to include post 16 provision on a new site in Ickburgh Rd which will open in October 2021. This will be called The Pavilion and the plan is for all Key stage 4 students to transfer to the site within the next 2 years.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right candidate to play an important role in supporting the development of a school for older students with autism which will prepare them well for adult life.

If, after reading the job description and person specification, you believe you have the relevant skills, knowledge and experience to take on this post, please complete the application form and return to bquigley@thegarden.hackney.sch.uk

Closing Date: 30th August 2021

Many thanks for your interest in the post.

Ashmina Rahman,

School Operations Manager

The Garden School