

JOB DESCRIPTION

POST TITLE:	History Teacher
STATUS:	Permanent, Full Time
SCALE:	Main / Upper Pay Range
LINE MANAGER:	Head of Faculty

Provide professional leadership and management in all classes, supporting and developing the students, holding them accountable for their progress.

Manage your own professional development, with the support of your line manager, in order to secure high quality teaching, the effective use of resources and improved standards of learning and achievement of all students in your classes.

In addition to the duties set out in the "School Teacher Pay and Conditions of Service" document and the Job Description for classroom teachers, this post carries with it the following responsibilities in the first instance:

Principal Accountabilities

1. To agree, monitor and evaluate the student progress targets for the classes taught to promote pupil achievement and to make a measurable contribution to the class, department/faculty and whole school targets.
2. To have teaching plans, which contribute positively to the achievement of students you teach and which actively involves all students in its execution.
3. To engage all students in your classes in the consistent implementation of schemes of work which encapsulate key learning strategies.
4. To provide regular feedback for students in a way which recognises good practice and supports their progress against targets and has a tangible and measurable impact on student learning.
5. To assist the Head of Department/Faculty in the ongoing review of the standards of leadership, teaching and learning in the subject area, consistent with the schools self-evaluation procedures.
6. To ensure that you and all students in your classes understand, and are actively implementing, the key aspects of the school's values and beliefs and all aspects of school agreed policies including the school's behaviour and inclusion policies.
7. To support your Head of Department in ensuring that budget allocations to the department are spent in line with priorities and the principles of best value, and to ensure that all resources are kept in good order and safe.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Teaching, Learning and Assessment

- To oversee students' work within History and ensure that learning experiences offered to students are appropriate and relevant to their needs.
- To continually review and develop the range of learning experiences offered to students.
- To keep informed of curriculum developments relevant to the subject.
- To contribute to detailed schemes of work in line with national requirements and school policy.
- To ensure that students' work is regularly assessed and progress monitored, and that accurate records of progress are kept.

Haggerston School

- To contribute to devising and implementing strategies for celebrating pupil achievement, e.g. regular display of work.
- To ensure that profiles and progress reports are written on all students, by published deadlines, and that these conform to school policy.
- To work effectively in liaison with the Inclusion/Achievement team.
- To be willing to participate in the implementation of cross-curricular links within the department/faculty.
- To assist where necessary, the Head of Faculty in supporting public and internal examinations.
- To liaise with the appropriate tutor and/or Head of Learning, to ensure that the educational needs of all students are met.

Professional Support

- To work collaboratively in the delivery of History in order to facilitate the effective development of the subject throughout the school.
- To maintain a disciplined learning environment within the subject areas.
- To liaise with the tutors and/or Heads of Learning over students causing concern.
- To work with the Head of Faculty to ensure that newly qualified teachers, student teachers and new staff are given appropriate advice and support.
- To participate in opportunities, to aid your professional development. Such opportunities will reflect the school's approach to performance management and include strategies for extending professional experiences, in consultation with the Head of Department/Faculty.
- To ensure that appropriate work is set for cover staff.
- To contribute as necessary to the preparation of the Humanities Faculty Handbook.

Communications

- To attend appropriate meetings where relevant and to provide feedback to team members.
- To attend teaching team meetings and contribute to discussions.
- To contribute to effective liaison with institutions outside the school, including primary schools and post-16 institutions organised by the department/faculty.
- To liaise with parents, as and when appropriate.

General

- Undertake additional tasks as required from time to time to support the growth and operational requirements of the department/faculty.
- Participate in the regular review of this job descriptions

Whilst every effort has been made to set down the main duties and responsibilities of the post, each individual task to be undertaken may not be identified. This job description is current at the date shown, but, in consultation with you, may be changed by the Head teacher to reflect or anticipate changes in the job commensurate with the grade and job title.

The post holder will be expected to work flexibly and carry out all duties in compliance with the school and Hackney Learning Trust policies.
