Wentworth Nursery School and Children's Centre are situated within a vibrant and diverse community; exploring and celebrating the cultures within this community is an essential part of our offer and curriculum. It is our ambition that families from all backgrounds, as well as those with differing educational and social needs, are able to engage in rewarding, educational or developmental experiences and make progress. Wentworth Nursery School and Children's Centre are looking for a Headteacher who will have the vision and skills to inspire and collaborate with all staff and external partners, to develop and explore new opportunities, which will enhance reach and delivery.

The quality of the teaching practice at Wentworth has been recognised both locally and nationally; the Nursery School has been judged "outstanding" by Ofsted since 2008. Wentworth staff regularly deliver training to local settings, as well as providing resources for national agencies such as OFSTED and organisations such as Nursery World. Wentworth will be recruiting a dynamic Headteacher, who will be ambitious for all our children, their families and our staff; ensuring that the education, training and other opportunities that Wentworth Nursery School and Children's Centre provide are always of a high quality and relevant to the needs of our community.

What Wentworth can offer you:

- Inner London Salary Range L12 – L18* (*this point is the maximum salary for the head teacher group range)
- Highly skilled staff, dedicated to providing the best for families and their children.
- Well-resourced environments, including an extensive, landscaped outdoor space.
- A governing body committed to maintaining the highest levels of CPD and research opportunities for all staff.
- A unique and exciting location, offering access to the cultural and historical resources of central London, as well as easy links to the 2012 Olympic Park and beyond.

We would love to meet you and show you around our amazing School and Children's Centre.
