

Shoreditch Park Primary School

Hackney Education

Job Advert – Teaching Assistant

Welcome to Shoreditch Park Primary School.

Achievement, progress, challenge, inspiration and enjoyment are at the heart of everything we do.

We are committed to providing children with the very best education to ensure that each child reaches their maximum potential and develops a lasting love of learning and sense of curiosity in the world around them.

We know that children who feel respected and proud of themselves will learn best. Both achievement and perseverance are celebrated and recognised.

We aim to deliver excellent education by providing a stimulating, rich and relevant curriculum which balances the rigorous teaching of core skills and knowledge with creative and imaginative opportunities.

We believe in our role in shaping future communities and aim to ensure our children leave here as happy, successful individuals – thoughtful, confident, and equipped with the skills they need to do the best they can in their immediate environment and the wider world.

Our expectations of the children and the adults within the school are high. We foster a welcoming, safe, disciplined environment where all children, families and all other members of our school community are treated with tolerance, kindness and respect.

Penny Smith

Headteacher

Summary of school

We are offering an exciting opportunity for Teaching Assistants to join our fantastic team at Shoreditch Park Primary School. We are an outstanding education provider in the heart of Hackney. The high achieving education offer has achieved both international and national recognition through programmes such as the UNICEF Rights Respecting accreditation (receiving the gold award); Flagship status for Excellence for Inclusion (IQM) and many other curriculum linked awards. This is endorsed by the local community with the school remaining over-subscribed despite the local pupil roll challenges in London.

Role Overview

We are looking for a teaching assistant who:

- Demonstrates a genuine commitment, passion and interest for the inclusive education of children
- The utmost integrity, proactive approach & efficient time management
- Excellent communication skills with all stakeholders
- Has experience of being reflective, open to feedback and driven to be outstanding
- Ability to see the key role that support staff play in the 'big picture'
- Contribute to the wider community of the school

We offer:

- A passionate, driven and successful school where you will feel well supported in your role
- A very well resourced, attractive working environment
- A robust induction process
- A school that is committed to ensuring that every child succeeds
- Individualised professional development and career enhancement opportunities
- A comprehensive Wellbeing Policy
- The support of an experienced leadership team.
- A chance to work in a diverse, inclusive and vibrant community with excellent transport links

Key information

Contract type:	Permanent
Closing date:	Application forms must be submitted via email to vacancies@shoreditchpark.hackney.sch.uk by Monday 3 rd June 2024, 16:00 (We reserve the right to interview exceptional candidates prior to the closing date and references will be requested for shortlisted candidates).
Salary:	National Joint Council Pay scale, Inner London, Scale 4
Interviews:	Week beginning 10 th June 2024

Who to contact for further information

This is an exciting time to join our school. If this role sounds like the job for you or if you would like any more information, please do not hesitate to contact Karen Ward, Office Manager at vacancies@shoreditchpark.hackney.sch.uk, ahead of making your application.

Please visit our website, www.shoreditchpark.hackney.sch.uk, for further information about Shoreditch Park Primary School.

Safeguarding and diversity statement

Shoreditch Park Primary School is committed to safeguarding and welfare of all children. Successful candidates will require a DBS clearance and suitable references before commencing employment. We are committed to diversity, equality and inclusion and welcome applications from all section of the community, regardless of gender, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or age. We actively welcome applicants from ethnic minority backgrounds and underrepresented groups in primary settings.

