(3 Posts - location postcodes N16 and E5)

This role is being advertised on behalf of Hackney Council - please do not apply on this site - please click on the link below to apply - Click here to apply

We are looking for individuals to join the Council's School crossing patrol service and contribute to the safety and welfare of Hackney's residents. We have 36 officers across the borough on 32 designated sites, and you will be central in helping school children and anyone who requires assistance get to where they need to go. You will also help serve as a face of the council being based at a designated site each day and getting to know the local community.

The vacant posts are based in the following postcodes N16 and E5 and candidates will need to live within a reasonable travelling distance (no more than 30 minutes walking distance) of the sites in order to be considered.

The post is part time, working an hour shift both at the start and finish of the school day. We are currently recruiting for two vacant sites across Hackney, and you will need to be able to easily travel to your locally assigned site as consistency of service in all weathers is vital.

Full training and uniform is provided to ensure that you are prepared to assist your community in the appropriate way.

Employment will depend on the passing of a full medical to ensure it is safe for you to undertake the role, and clearance by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) is required. An understanding of the rules for road users and pedestrians is essential.

There is no better place to work in London than Hackney; we have great pride in our borough, our communities, and our services. Hackney is one of London's most vibrant and diverse boroughs. It's one of the most sought after areas to live in London with good schools, parks and local amenities, as well as great transport links and vibrant and diverse communities.

Further information

We are also working towards our vision, which is to be a place for everyone; where residents and staff can be proud; a place that celebrates diversity and where everyone can feel valued, included and involved. In order to achieve this, we look for people who are: Proud; Ambitious; Pioneering; Open; Proactive; Inclusive.

Hackney Council works to eradicate discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, pregnancy and maternity, age and marital status. We also recognise that people can be disadvantaged by their social and economic circumstances, so we will also work to eliminate discrimination and disadvantage caused by social class. We also welcome those interested in flexible working. We particularly welcome applications from disabled people, as this group is currently under represented in our workforce.

The Council has a dedicated employment support service (Hackney Works), which offers Hackney residents guidance in relation to applying for jobs.
