Criminal records disclosure (DBS)

Because of the nature of the work for which you are applying, this post is exempt from the provision of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You are therefore required to disclose information which for any other purposes is 'spent' under the provisions of the Act. All posts requires you to have a DBS Enhanced check for regulated activity. That means that all convictions or cautions (excluding youth cautions, reprimands or warnings) that are not 'protected' as defined by the Ministry of Justice must be disclosed during the recruitment process. Failure to disclose such information may result in the withdrawal of a job offer or, if subsequently discovered, could result in dismissal or disciplinary action. If the role you are applying for requires a DBS check, and you have worked/lived abroad continuously for 6 months within the last 5 years we may request you to also complete an overseas criminal records check.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence (including convictions with Absolute Discharge), or been given a caution/reprimand/warning/bind-over order (excluding youth cautions, reprimands or warnings)? * Yes  No

If yes, please attach details in a sealed envelope, including dates.

Prevention and detection of fraud

We have a duty to protect public funds. We may use the information you have provided on this form for the prevention and detection of fraud. We may also share this information with other bodies administering public funds solely for those purposes.

Declaration

I have read and understood the information contained in this application form.

I declare that all information I have provided on this form is true and accurate, and that I am not banned or disqualified from working with children nor subject to any sanctions or conditions on my employment imposed by a regulatory body or the Secretary of State.

I understand that omissions or incorrect statements might disqualify me or, if appointed, my employment may be terminated.

This declaration constitutes part of the terms of contract if I am appointed.

I agree to the above declaration.* Yes  No
