Comet is an Outstanding and inclusive Nursery School within a diverse and vibrant community. We are well resourced and forward thinking in our approach to nursery education. Our learning environment offers children open ended opportunities to play, explore and learn.

We would like to appoint an enthusiastic and inspirational early years teacher to join our dedicated and experienced team. This post will be a job share class teacher role.

- Are you enthusiastic and passionate about teaching in the early years?
- Are you motivated and a good team member?
- Do you inspire your colleagues with inspirational teaching?
- Do you provide exciting and imaginative experiences for the children?
- Do you make learning fun and have a sense of humour?
- Are you able to communicate effectively and be flexible within your role?

We are able to offer a friendly and supportive team with great professional development opportunities.

Visits to the school are strongly encouraged. For more information and to organise a visit please contact Denise Davis-Boreham (School Business Manager).

Closing date for applications: Tuesday 5th July at 12 noon
